TULLOW, GRANGE & ARDATTIN PARISH NEWSLETTER

31st July, 2011. Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

“ They all ate as much as they wanted”

(Today's Gospel)

The crowds who followed Jesus in today's Gospel were nourished in body and soul. We too are nourished each time we gather around the Lord's table.

We are nourished by his Word: ‘Come to me, listen, and your soul shall live’. (First Reading)

We are nourished by the gift of his body and blood: “you open wide your hand, grant the desires of all who live”. (Responsorial Psalm)
As we return to our homes and community, we pray that as we have been nourished, we can be bread for each other:

The Bread of hope
The Bread of love
The Bread of life.
