TULLOW, GRANGE & ARDATTIN PARISH NEWSLETTER

19th May 2013

Pentecost Sunday

Our New Bishop

Pope Francis has appointed as Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin, the Very Rev. Denis Nulty, Parish Priest of Saint Mary's Parish, Drogheda, Diocese of Meath.

Denis Nulty was born in Slane, County Meath on 7 June 1963 to parents Den Nulty and Nan Balfe.

He is the youngest of five children, with two brothers and two sisters. The family farm was the home where Denis and his siblings were reared. He attended Primary School at Saint Patrick's National School, Slane and Secondary School at Saint Patrick's Classical School, Navan, completing the Leaving Certificate exam in 1981. Denis entered the seminary at Saint Patrick's College, Maynooth in September 1981, completing a BA in 1984 and a BD in 1987.

He was ordained a Priest for the Diocese of Meath in Saint Patrick's Church, Slane on 12 June 1988 by Bishop Michael Smith. In September 1988 Bishop Smith appointed Father Denis as Curate in the Cathedral Parish at Mullingar where he served for ten years until 1998. In August 1998 Bishop Smith appointed Fr. Denis as Parish Priest of Saint Mary's, Drogheda where he has remained until the present day.

THE EPISCOPAL ORDINATION of Fr Denis Nulty, our Bishop Elect, will take place on Sunday 4th August 2013 in the Cathedral of the Assumption, Carlow.

May he have many happy years in our Diocese.
