TULLOW, GRANGE AND ARDATTIN PARISH NEWSLETTER

4th June 2017. PENTECOST SUNDAY

*Come Spirit who is our light
Warm and transform our hearts.
Come, Spirit, comforter and consoler.
Heal the wounded, soothe the anxious.
Come, Spirit, strength of wounded ones.
Be warmth in hearts of those grown cold.
Come, Spirit of wisdom and insight,
Draw us towards your goodness and light.*

There are eight married deacons in various parishes in our Diocese. Four others are currently in formation and hope to be ordained deacons in three years time. Their formation will involve part time study and work in parishes. One of those in formation hopes to minister in Tullow parish.

Vincent Crowley is a 59 year old retired man living in Athy. He is married with three grown up children. As part of his training he will gradually become more involved in our in our community, initially working in funeral ministry and also with music and choirs. We warmly welcome Vincent to our parish and we hope his time among us will be a great blessing for all.
