Cardinal Brady appeals for Prayers and help for Haiti

"I offer my prayerful support to the people of Haiti following the recent earthquake.

My prayers are with those coming to terms with losing family members and friends. I ask for special prayers to be offered for the injured so that they may find the courage to rebuild their lives, and that we remember in our prayers those who have died in Haiti due to the catastrophe. I also ask for prayers of support to those providing emergency assistance and medical treatment to the injured and displaced.

Irish people have traditionally shown immense generosity in supporting relief agencies which give on the ground help to areas of devastation. I ask— while appreciating these are difficult times at home—that we once again show such selflessness in this hour of need for Haiti"

Trocaire, the bishops' overseas development agency, has opened an appeal to help relieve the situation in Haiti.

You can make a contribution to Trocaire's appeal
at the first collection at all masses this weekend.
